

CONTRIBUTORS

Convention: Knowing Your Rights 10

Convention: Lewis and Clark 15

JENNIFER BOHNHOFF

A two-time Spur Award finalist, author and educator, Jennifer writes historical and contemporary fiction for middle grade through adult readers.

Convention: Historical Fiction 11

Convention: Route 66 16

E. JOE BROWN

An Air Force veteran, Joe writes the "Kelly Can Saga" series of Western novels. He lives in New Mexico.

Convention: Paul Andrew Hutton Keynote 8

Convention: Beer, Baseball and Blues 24

Convention: Scorecard 27

MICKI FUHRMAN

A Stirrup Award and two-time Spur Award winner, Micki is a touring singer/songwriter and was recently installed as WWA vice president.

Convention: Happy Birthday, America 15

Convention: Mark Twain and Humor 20

RACHELLE "ROCKY" GIBBONS

This children's book author, longtime WWA member and former WWA executive director lives in Utah.

Convention: Mountain men in St. Louis 17

DOUG HOCKING

A frequent Roundup contributor, Doug won a Spur Award last year for his Wild West magazine article "The Mysterious Death of Johnny Ringo."

Remembering Sherry Monahan 7

BILL MARKLEY

Roundup Magazine's "Wild Bill's Wild West" columnist was a longtime friend of the late WWA president.

Convention: Roundtables 22

DENISE F. McALLISTER

A Georgia-based proofreader and editor, Denise also cowrites "The Wild Cow Ranch" and "Rafters O Ranch" series with Natalie Bright.

Convention: Texas Folk Songs and Instruments 25

HARRY MUSSELWHITE

Based in New Mexico, Harry is a screenwriter and author of children's books.

Convention: Literary Kinship panel 19

Remembering T. Lindsay Baker 42

CHARLES E. RANKIN

Retired as editor-in-chief with the University of Oklahoma Press and editor of Montana The Magazine of Western History, Chuck lives in Montana and Arizona.

Remembering "Marv" Kaiser 43

STUART ROSEBROOK

Stuart is in his first year as WWA's president.

Convention: Quotes 12

CANDACE SIMAR

Winner of the Spur and many other awards for her historical Western fiction, Candace lives in Pequot Lakes, Minnesota.

Convention: Day Trip 12

Convention: Bellefontaine

Cemetery presentation 14

Convention: Paul Andrew Hutton Q&A 45

SCOTT F. SMITH

Scott is author the "Corrigan Brothers" series: Vengeance Wears a Star, Cast Asunder, Blue Sky Reckoning and Play for Blood.

Convention: Border Wars presentation 16

SANDY WHITING

This Kansas resident won a Spur Award for her 1994 short story "Charity," published in Louis L'Amour Western Magazine.

CORRECTION

The zip code for Billy Dean, a judge in the 2027 Spur Awards' Best Western Song category, was incorrect in the June Roundup and on the WWA website. The correct address is:

Billy Dean
C/O Red Light Mgmt.
1101 McGavock Street
#300
Nashville, TN 37203

See Spur Awards Entry Form, Pages 39-40.

Caleb Gayle, a judge in the 2027 Spur Awards' Best Biography category, said that people were having trouble with the business address listed in the June Roundup and on the WWA website and that biography entrants should use this address:

Caleb Gayle
124 Marshall Street
Watertown, MA 02472

See Spur Awards Entry Form, Pages 39-40.

RIDING POINT (from page 5)

Astride our metaphoric Fire Horse, let us charge forward for the greater good of WWA. Let not fear enter our hearts, but replace our misguided trepidation be supplanted with forward movement, independence and endurance.

For more information on forming a local "Circle of Writers," e-mail me at stuart.rosebrook@sharlothallmuseum.org and executive director Kellen Cutsforth at director@westernwriters.org.

I am grateful for each of you and your membership. Your membership – whether 40 years or six months – is a testament to your belief in this organization and its mission. Your support through your investment in your membership, your volunteerism, your participation, and even financial support at the Patron or Sustaining levels, sponsor or advertiser in Roundup, makes a difference.